Giving Thanks by the Lake

We were extremely fortunate to have so many guests join us to Give Thanks Lakeside on November 23rd. Many thanks are owed to the faculty and staff who put the event together, and especially to the students in the Culinary Arts program, who created a wonderful feast!

The Search is On!

As we move forward with our athletic department expansion, the College is now looking for qualified coaches for the Men's and Women's Tennis and Golf teams.

If you know of anyone interested in one of these, or any of CCGA's open positions, pass along this link to the CCGA job announcement postings.

Keeping up with Institutional Effectiveness.

The Institutional Effectiveness newsletter provides administrators, faculty, staff, and students with information regarding how Institutional Effectiveness (IE) is supporting the College of Coastal Georgia through various institutional research and assessment projects.

Coastal Visions

This past October, local artists graciously contributed their time and talents to establish an exhibit of paintings in honor of the College's inauguration events.

These works, reflecting the coastal region as well as the vision of the College of Coastal Georgia, are currently on display in the Hargett Administration Building.

Coastal Visions begins the College's permanent collection, envisioned to be housed in the future Coastal Community Center for the Arts.

Making a Difference

Scholarships open doors to opportunity

Amanda Moore needed a change in her life.

Several years ago, she dropped out of high school and had two children. She recalls that education was never emphasized in her home and that she came from generational poverty. But that was something Moore decided to change. To read more, click here.

Santa Clause is Coming to Town

College of Coastal Georgia President Dr. Valerie Hepburn served as the Grand Marshal of the 2009 Brunswick Christmas Parade on December 5. She was joined by College of Coastal Georgia students, Marlene Chestnut and Darby Chancey.
