Condolences. We would like to express our condolences to Mini Ramsey for the unexpected loss of her granddaughter, Rolanda Johnson, last week. The family has established a trust at Marshland Credit Union to cover funeral expenses. Again, our deepest sympathies are extended to the family.

Condolences. We would like to express our condolences to the family of Deneen Knox. We were informed by the family that Ms. Knox passed away July 24. Visitation will be held Saturday, July 28 at 2:00 pm with Memorial Services following at 3:00 pm. Both the visitation and service will be held at Edo Miller Funeral Home.

New Hires

Aaron Fuller, Jr.

Aaron Fuller has been working for the College since May. He was recently hired as an Environmental Services Technician.

Emily Abercrombie

Emily Abercrombie joined the staff of the Library at the beginning of July. She filled the position as the Library Assistant.

Kathy Price

Kathy Price was hired to fill the Accountant II position in Business Affairs. She has been working for the College since June. Kathy is a native of Brunswick. Her business background includes MRO Buyer/Purchasing agent for the last 13 years at Jered LLC, and former Assistant Manager / Loan Officer / Bookkeeper at Glynn County Federal Employees Credit Union for 13 years. She is dedicated to working for her church as a church pianist, assistant treasurer, and counting committee chairperson. She also makes time for a large family and enjoys an assortment of crafts. She looks forward to serving the faculty, staff, and students at CGCC.

Kathleen Halliwell

Kathleen Halliwell was hired to fill the Executive Assistant to the President position. She has been working for the College since July 16. Kathleen comes to us from the University of Central Florida where she served as an Academic Advisor. Originally from Massachusetts, Kathy obtained a BS degree in Elementary Education from Salem State College and is now making her home in Brunswick.
