Treats for the Troops. Each year, the Girl Scouts collect boxes of cookies to send to our soldiers overseas or to those serving stateside. This year, the Girls Scouts are teaming up with FLETC, at the urging of several of their staff who were deployed to Iraq last year, to ship cookies to soldiers overseas or to those in veterans' hospitals here in the Southeast. If you'd like to support this effort, contact Sharon Bartkovich. You can buy the cookies ($3.50 a box) and she will give you a sticker for the box so that you can write a brief message to the troops. You can order the cookies now, or you can just see Sharon after February 19th, when the cookies will be available.

Note to the College. To My College Family:

*Many times I have read the notes in The Campus Connection from all of you who have lost loved ones. I've been here many years; I've read too many of those notes. And everyone in his or her note has thanked this wonderful family of ours for their varied expressions of love and caring. I never thought one day I'd be composing such a note—not that I thought my family was immortal; I just didn't think about those things.*

*Just as I had not known the depth of their grief, I had not understood the depth of their gratitude. "Thank you" cannot even begin to express how grateful I am for every note or card, for every time you have stopped me to give me a hug or to say you were sorry about my losing my dad, for every time you have let me reminisce and remember how blessed Mercedes, Becca, and my entire family has been and is. You have done so much to fill that gaping hole in our hearts. Thank you. Sharon Bartkovich

Legislative Update Available. The January 8th and January 16th issues of Legislative Update are now available on the college website under the Faculty & Staff resources link. Please print for those in your area(s) without e-mail access.
