Chris Cauley-Chinua Hawk Project returns to College of Coastal Georgia

The Chris Cauley-Chinua Hawk Project will simply overwhelm you with great music and intense energy. “The Project” played together for the first time ever two years ago on the campus of College of Coastal Georgia. Now, as a special favor to the place where it all started, they are returning for two nights to perform Motown classics and original tunes. Southeast Georgia Conference Center, Friday, November 14, 7:00 PM and Camden Center, Saturday, November 15, 7:00 PM. Two outstanding blues singers, one guitar and backup musicians (bass, drum, or saxophone.) The event is open to the public at no charge and for information call the Office of Student Life at 912-279-5812.

The Marshes of Glynn Girl Scouts making troops’ day a little brighter

The fall fundraiser for the Marshes of Glynn Girl Scouts will include Ashdon Farms nuts and chocolates. The nuts, chocolates and cookies will be shipped to the Armed Services personnel overseas. If you know a soldier that would like to receive this delicious package, contact your favorite Girl Scout and purchase a box. The packages are being shipped at no extra charge. You can also contact Sharon Bartkovich, ext. 5875 sbartkovich@ccga.edu to make your purchases.

Mariners’ Mates—College Incentives

Brunswick Community Concert Association has been bringing top-quality, professional musical entertainment to our community at affordable prices for 68 years and would like to extend to students membership for $10.00. With this membership, students are able to attend all six concerts.

Receive 10% off your purchase on Wednesdays at Starbucks on Altama.

College of Coastal Georgia employees and immediate family can join Curves at the special college rate of $39.00.

Rhythm on the River, October 12th 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM Mary Ross Waterfront. Downtown
