Happy Halloween

Chris Cauley-Chinua Hawk Project returns to College of Coastal Georgia

The Chris Cauley-Chinua Hawk Project will simply overwhelm you with great music and intense energy. “The Project” played together for the first time ever two years ago on the campus of College of Coastal Georgia. Now, as a special favor to the place where it all started, they are returning for two nights to perform Motown classics and original tunes. Southeast Georgia Conference Center, Friday, November 14, 7:00 PM and Camden Center, Saturday, November 15, 7:00 PM. Two outstanding blues singers, one guitar and backup musicians (bass, drum, or saxophone.) The event is open to the public at no charge and for information call the Office of Student Life at 912-279-5812.

Chinua Hawk and Chris Cauley

61st Annual Policeman’s Ball

The Brunswick Police Association is hosting its 61st Annual Policeman’s Ball, “An Evening in Hollywood,” November 15th at 7:30pm at the Jekyll Island Convention Center. The Soul Purpose Band will be performing. There will also be a silent auction, door prizes and light refreshments. Tickets cost $20.00; contact The Brunswick Police Department 912-267-5559 or asmith@brunswickpolice.org.

Mariners’ Mates—College Incentives

Brunswick Community Concert Association has been bringing top-quality, professional musical entertainment to our community at affordable prices for 68 years and would like to extend to students membership for $10.00. With this membership, students are able to attend all six concerts.

Receive 10% off your purchase on Wednesdays at Starbucks on Altama.

College of Coastal Georgia employees and immediate family can join Curves at the special college rate of $39.00.
